GENERAL INFORMATION

One license to hunt bighorn sheep may be issued to a nonresident participating in the lottery. If a nonresident is issued a license to hunt bighorn sheep, no other nonresident may be issued a license to hunt bighorn sheep through the lottery. If all of the licenses to hunt bighorn sheep made available through the lottery are issued to residents, then a nonresident is not eligible to be issued a license to hunt bighorn sheep through the lottery. Each person who has received a license to hunt bighorn sheep is not eligible to apply for another bighorn sheep license.

Only male bighorn sheep shall be legal.

Regular season license holders may use any legal weapon, are required to wear orange clothing and are restricted to their designated unit for the entire season.

Bow only season license holders are restricted to bows only and are restricted to their designated unit for the entire season. They are required to wear orange clothing during the regular (any legal weapon) season.

Each successful bighorn sheep hunter will be required to submit the head of their animal to a central checking station or department representative where it will be registered as a legally taken animal.

Season dates:

Regular (Any Legal Weapon) - From one half hour before sunrise to one half hour after sunset each day October 9, 2009 through October 25, 2009.

Bow Only - From one half hour before sunrise to one half hour after sunset each day October 2, 2009 through October 25, 2009.
